

2019 Summer Camp Parent Information

- We are attending Camp Freeland Leslie (CFL) summer camp in 2019, in Oxford Wisconsin. This camp is just over 3 hours away.
- The troop needs to know every person who intends to spend all or part of the week at CFL. If you intend to visit camp, you MUST pre-register according to the deadlines below. Note that you will be required to pay fees and may be required to provide your own lodging.
- There will be a Summer Camp Information Meeting for parents as we get closer to camp. The date will be available on the calendar shortly - keep an eye on the Hot News.
- Early registration and final registration deadlines are firm. Get your paperwork in on time for discounts. "A scout is thrifty"
- Health forms ABB&C must be signed by a doctor and dated after June 2018 (July 2018 if attending week 2). Provide 3 complete copies of health forms. PLEASE DO NOT PRINT DOUBLE SIDED. Please also Keep a copy for yourself as well! Be sure to include a copy of your insurance card, front and back, with each health form - again please do not print insurance card double sided either.
- Summer Camp information will be available shortly on the Troop Website at www.troop23wheaton.org under the "Summer Camp" section.
- Parents please accompany Scouts to turn in paperwork. In case there are issues, we can handle issues with the parents immediately.
- Merit Badges are typically Scouts who are First Class or higher, however there may be exceptions. Mr. Jeffers must sign all Blue Cards before you sign up for MB's. Show your completed Blue Cards to the Summer Camp team and take your Blue Cards to camp. See Guide to Taking Merit Badges for more information.
- Late registrations will be taken after April 8 up until May 13 but the early bird fee will not be honored except for April crossover scouts.

Summer Camp 2019 CHECKLIST
