CALLING ALL FUTURE EAGLES:

All interested Star and Life scouts should make every effort to be at the 2/24 troop meeting. Luke Jones will be on hand to offer guidance and tips on how to prepare to obtain Eagle. All current / newly minted Eagles are encouraged to attend to offer their input and share their Eagle experiences.

CPR/AED FIRST AID CERTIFICATION COURSE:

Troop 23 is planning to offer a CPR/AED First Aid certification course through the American Heart Association. Participants in this four hour course will receive a certification card valid for two years. All adults are welcome. Registered Troop 23 Leaders will have their fee covered by the Troop. Others will pay a fee. We are planning to schedule weekday evening dates in April. Look for scheduled dates for the course and costs in future Hot News. If interested, please contact Mr. Boyd - ccjinboyd@comcast.net

CROSSOVERS:

Help is needed with Pack 35's Crossover on Friday February 28th at 6:30 pm at Gary Methodist Church. Sign-up sheets will be at Monday's meeting, or if available email Mr. Scherer at Rscherer1327@gmail.com .

SUMMER CAMP:

Final payments for summer camp are due March 23.

SCOUT NANO EVENT: March 14, 8:30 a.m.-1:30 p.m. at Northwestern University in Evanston

Learn about the exciting field of nanotechnology. Meet and work with scientists. Participate in hands-on experiments and demos. Cost is $10 and includes pizza and patch. Advance registration and payment is required. There are a few spaces left. Interested? Contact Mr. Ostensen (e.ostensen@comcast.net).

SAVE THE DATE:

Parent Night Out! Sunday, March 15, 5 – 7 p.m. Look for more details in future Hot News!
