TIME CHANGE - WEEKLY TROOP MEETINGS:

Starting Monday, February 14, weekly Troop Meetings will be held from 7:00 pm – 8:30pm, as an earlier time will be easier for many families, troop leaders, and scouts.

SCOUTING FOR FOOD:

Troop 23 is participating in a modified version of BSA's Scouting for Food event this month. Scouts are asked to bring in food donations that will be shared locally with People's Resource Center (PRC). You can canvass your neighborhood or raid your pantry at home. Information on the food drive has also been shared with members of First Presbyterian Church so members of the church will also be bringing in items. Please bring your donations to the February 14 Troop Meeting.

TROOP COURT OF HONOR:

Due to Covid delays, Troop Court of Honor has been pushed back (date TBD). In the meantime, to prevent scouts from falling behind please email all January advancements to Julie Carlson-Noordhoek at julie@burrillacarlson.com.

FIVE ACRE WOODED PROPERTY FOR SALE:

While we normally don't do advertising such as this, Mr. Gerber, who has allowed Troop 23 to use his property on Mack Rd for storage and camping, is thinking of selling his home. If you've attended a new scout campout, you know what a beautiful piece of property it is. Five acres (more or less), oak tree canopy, 4 stall barn and tack room, hay barn, 2 acres of fenced pasture, and a residence. If you're a horse person, this is for you! Contact Jeff Jeffers at frankejeffers@yahoo.com for details.
