MEMBERSHIP RENEWAL:

Annual membership renewal is Nov. 1 for most Troop members. Those Scouts will receive an email around Sept. 1 from Scouting America. Please do not pay Scouting America directly; the Troop has been paying for you and collecting from the Scouts. Adults will need to pass the new/updated Safeguarding Youth training (YPT) before then; new course, plus shorter for annual recertification. Hazardous Weather training is also required for Trained status. Adults may donate toward their fees to the Troop, if desired.

WREATH SALE KICKOFF:

The Parent Wreath Meeting and wreath sales kickoff day is August 25th.

VOLUNTEER NEEDED:

Troop 23 is looking for an adult volunteer to coordinate/track adult training for the Troop. If you are interested or for information on how to get started, contact Steve Yates at steve@srtware.com

GEAR AVAILABLE:

A former Troop member has generously donated several items of camping gear. One item is a 12-person tent, which the Troop probably doesn't have a use for, so if someone wants it please claim it, otherwise it will be donated to Goodwill. Other items going into the uniform exchange include:

- Small "backpacking" chair
- 2 folding chairs
- 1 sleeping bag
- 3 sleeping pads

GEAR (AND ASSISTANCE) NEEDED:

Do you have a trailer hitch? Troop 23 may need help pulling the trailer to campouts this fall. If you can pull the trailer, please let us know. You'll need to be registered (in advance) if staying overnight, but the Troop pays for adults.

SCOUTING AMERICA HAS A RECRUITER AWARD FOR SCOUTS:

The best way to build a unit is to invite a friend. There are three steps:

- 1) Talk about Scouting and why you enjoy it,
- 2) Invite a friend to a meeting and let their parents know they can speak with Mr. Yates if your friend is interested,
- 3) Your friend joins and is welcomed by the troop! The award is a "recruiter" strip worn on the uniform under your right shirt pocket. For more information, visit www.scoutshop.org/blog/a-scouts-guide-to-earning-the-bsa-recruiter-patch

OCTOBER SCHEDULING CHANGE:

Note a scheduling change to the October Troop Campout; the campout has been pushed back one week to October 10 – 12.
