

Patrol Member Rights and Responsibilities

- Regularly and enthusiastically attend and participate in all Patrol and Troop Meetings and activities. I will let my Patrol leader know in advance when I cannot attend.
- Show and all-for-one and one-for-all teamwork and attitude and expect and encourage others in my patrol to do the same. I understand that my contributions to my Patrol make a difference and are important to my Patrol's effectiveness.
- Make my thoughts and concerns known to my patrol leader. Once my patrol has voted on a course of action, I will be a good follower.
- Do my best on advancement and skill learning so I can strengthen my Patrol. I can and should expect my Patrol Leader, and my Troop Guide, to help me with my advancement.
- Show Patrol Spirit and be loyal to my Patrol. I am proud to be a member of my Patrol!
- Do my best in my patrol office and do some leading in my Patrol. If I am Assistant Patrol Leader, I will be prepared to take over when my Patrol Leader cannot attend or is busy doing something else.
- Be true to Scouting and wear my Scout uniform to Patrol and Troop functions.
- Live by the Scout Oath and Law and demonstrate Scout Spirit in everything I do.
- I realize my Patrol Leader has been elected to lead the Patrol. I will follow his leadership in the tasks he assigns me for the good of my Patrol.

“On my Honor, I will do my best.”

If we do not do our best, we short change our Fellow Scouts and ourselves. No Scout is perfect. However, when a Scout does not do his best, problems can arise and deep down inside he knows he has failed – not necessarily at the task – but at doing his best.
